BOOK SYNOPSIS

Allie Whitewater was used to living between two worlds. She embraced both the Native American heritage of her father and the white heritage of her mother. Jacob Tucker enjoys building up the ranch which he and his twin brother, Jonathan, had settled. Sure, there were dangers - rustlers, the harsh environment, Indians - but he wouldn't trade it for anything in the world. He is happy with life in the Montana territory. He never thinks there could be something or someone out there that could make him change his mind. His idea of life, and the world, changes when he leaves his ranch in 1867 to travel to 2013. Can the past handle a modern woman's view that the two cultures are really not that different when it comes to love and family or will it destroy the very thing that makes her the perfect partner for a man of the past - her warrior spirit?
